Director Commitment

It is important that you understand the commitment involved in being a Director, not only of time, but personal dedication to fulfilling the mission of the Association and representing the interests of all members.

Expectations of a Hudson Valley Catskill Region REALTORS® Director

1. Attendance at schedule board meetings: Currently scheduled, in person for the third Friday of the month, 10am – 11am . It is the policy that three (3) unexcused absences shall be construed as resignation from the Board.
2. Attendance and support of Association programs and seminars.
3. Participation in a committee of your choice.
4. Leave your office, and franchise affiliation at the door. Issues discussed and decisions made are for the good of the membership/Association.
5. Come prepared to each board meeting. Materials are sent a few days prior to the monthly meeting and must be read.
6. Willingness to be a representative of the Association at community functions and state meetings.
7. Able to attend the Installation of Directors event.

I understand the commitment expectations set forth above and will do my best to those expectations.
